

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 1193

98TH GENERAL ASSEMBLY

BY REPRESENTATIVE MCDANIEL.

2526H.011

D. ADAM CRUMBLISS, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To repeal section 213.055, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to race in the hiring process.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 213.055, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 213.055, to read as follows:

213.055. 1. It shall be an unlawful employment practice:

(1) For an employer, because of the race, color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability of any individual:

(a) To fail or refuse to hire or to discharge any individual, or otherwise to discriminate against any individual with respect to his compensation, terms, conditions, or privileges of employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability;

(b) To limit, segregate, or classify his employees or his employment applicants in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee, because of such individual's race, color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability;

(2) For a labor organization to exclude or to expel from its membership any individual or to discriminate in any way against any of its members or against any employer or any individual employed by an employer because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability of any individual; or to limit, segregate, or classify its membership, or to classify or fail or refuse to refer for employment any individual, in any way which would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities, or would limit such

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

18 employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect his status as an employee or as an 19 applicant for employment, because of such individual's race, color, religion, national origin, sex, 20 ancestry, age or disability; or for any employer, labor organization, or joint labor-management
21 committee controlling apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training 22 programs to discriminate against any individual because of his race, color, religion, national 23 origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability in admission to, or employment in, any program 24 established to provide apprenticeship or other training;

25 (3) For any employer or employment agency to print or circulate or cause to be printed 26 or circulated any statement, advertisement or publication, or to use any form of application for 27 employment or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which 28 expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification, or discrimination, because of race, 29 color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability unless based upon a bona fide 30 occupational qualification or for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer for employment, 31 or otherwise to discriminate against, any individual because of his race, color, religion, national 32 origin, sex, ancestry, age as it relates to employment, or disability, or to classify or refer for 33 employment any individual on the basis of his race, color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, 34 age or disability; and

35 (4) For any employer or employment agency, before a person is employed, to 36 require or request the person to furnish information that pertains to his or her race, unless 37 for the sole and exclusive purpose of compliance with any rule, regulation, or law of the 38 United States or of this state requiring the information.

39 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unlawful 40 employment practice for an employer to apply different standards of compensation, or different 41 terms, conditions or privileges of employment pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system, 42 or a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production or to employees who 43 work in different locations, provided that such differences or such systems are not the result of 44 an intention or a design to discriminate, and are not used to discriminate, because of race, color,
45 religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, age or disability, nor shall it be an unlawful employment 46 practice for an employer to give and to act upon the results of any professionally developed 47 ability test, provided that such test, its administration, or action upon the results thereof, is not 48 designed, intended or used to discriminate because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, 49 ancestry, age or disability.

50 3. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be interpreted to require any employer, 51 employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee subject to this 52 chapter to grant preferential treatment to any individual or to any group because of the race, 53 color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability of such individual or group on

54 account of an imbalance which may exist with respect to the total number or percentage of 55 persons of any race, color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or disability employed by 56 any employer, referred or classified for employment by any employment agency or labor 57 organization, admitted to membership or classified by any labor organization, or admitted to or 58 employed in any apprenticeship or other training program, in comparison with the total number 59 or percentage of persons of such race, color, religion, national origin, sex, ancestry, age or 60 disability in any community, state, section, or other area, or in the available workforce in any 61 community, state, section, or other area.

62 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, it shall not be an unlawful 63 employment practice for the state or any political subdivision of the state to comply with the 64 provisions of 29 U.S.C. 623 relating to employment as firefighters or law enforcement officers.
